Dear Morris:

Congratulations on becoming an ICC Certified Technician! We are happy that you have chosen to take part in our ICC Elite Certified Installer Program and are certain that you will be pleased with the benefits of your certification.

With your ICC certification, you are eligible to offer ICC's Lifetime Site Warranty. This warranty program gives ICC Certified Technicians and their customers the added assurance of knowing their system will operate with excellent performance and reliability. Please reference the warranty agreement and registration forms for complete details.

Your certification number is:

121010-006-1015

Along with this letter, we have included your technician certificate and information regarding the Lifetime Site Warranty policies and warranty registration documents.

Thank you for your loyalty to the ICC product line, and we look forward to working with you on future projects. Welcome to the team!

Sincerely,

Anthony Samaniego
